PARK TO OPEN ON LAKESHORE

Battery Park to open June 28

The public is invited to the official opening of Battery Park, on the shore of Lake Ontario at the foot of Earl Street:

WHEN: 11 a.m. Monday, June 28

WHERE: Battery Park, the new lakeshore park off of Ontario Street at the foot of Earl Street.

WHO: Mayor Harvey Rosen, Councillor Bill Glover, Alf Hendry and Brit Smith of Homestead Land Holdings, Gillin Engineering, City staff and the public.

WHAT: Opening of Battery Park.

Kingston's newest waterfront park, Battery Park, formerly known as Mississauga Point, has been home to a native settlement, a modest military establishment and the Canadian Locomotive Company. See what it looks like today at www.cityofkingston.ca/battery_park.

Join Mayor Harvey Rosen, members of council, Homestead Land Holdings, Gillin Engineering and City Staff as we celebrate our past, present and future.

AUGUSTA COMMON PARK

Public invited to give feedback on design of Augusta Common Park

A new recreational space in Cataraqui North Neighbourhood

The City wants the public's help deciding on design elements to be included in the Cataraqui North neighbourhood green space soon-to-be known as Augusta Common Park. A public meeting on the active and passive recreational features to be built into this space is set for 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, June 23 in Meeting Room A at the INVISTA Centre, 1350 Gardiners Rd.

The design options to be discussed are posted for review and Your Opinion comment at www.cityofkingston.ca/augusta. Comments on the design will be accepted until June 30.

At the meeting, City staff, and the landscape architect they have been working with, will offer an overview of the new park at Crossfield Avenue at Augusta Drive. Augusta Common Park will eventually link to two new parks planned for this recently developed residential area: Augusta Common West Park and Halifax Drive Park.

Some of the elements in the draft design include:

- a gazebo
- two play structures (one for smaller kids)
- a Biggo Swing

Plan to get there by bus: www.cityofkingston.ca/tripplanner

CANADA DAY CELEBRATIONS

Canada Day celebrated at Grass Creek and Confederation Parks

Municipal offices closed, transit to run on Sunday service

Kingston's Canada Day celebrations are scheduled for Confederation Park and Grass Creek Park. Here's what is going on (for more details go to www.cityofkingston.ca/events):

Red & White People Parade and Re-opening of Princess Street

Anyone wearing Canadian red and white is welcome to join this parade which departs from the Metro parking lot at 11:30 a.m. and runs down Princess Street toward City Hall. The parade will make a brief stop to reopen to the newly reconstructed lower Princess Street.

Confederation Park

Registration for the Limestone Mile races begins at 7:45 a.m. with races starting at 8:30 a.m.

At 12 p.m. on the steps of City Hall Mayor Harvey Rosen will preside over a civic ceremony to mark Canada Day and will congratulate the winners of the First Capital Awards – the family of Distinguished Citizen, the late Glenn "G" Williams, will be on hand, as will Honourable Achievement winners Arthur Miles and James Low – and the Mayor's Award for Youth Volunteerism winners Harley Sardinha, Lindley Kenny, Darry Malka Kyakimwa and Judy Kim.

Downtown Kingston! presents live entertainment at the Park from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. including performances by Borus Harp, Trevor Walsh Group, The Torres Project, Jamie Flegg Band, Sugar Plum, Cherry Chapstick and Everlea.

The fireworks start at 10 p.m. sharp. Confederation Basin will offer the best view of the show.

Grass Creek Park: 2991 Highway 2 East, 16 km from Fort Henry

Grass Creek Park will offer bouncy castles, pony rides, cotton candy, face-painting, crafts, mini-golf and lots of other fun for kids until about 6 p.m. (bouncy castles and mini-golf run until 10 p.m.).

Main Stage entertainment begins at 1 p.m. when emcee, comedian and musician Roger James opens the festivities. Main Stage entertainment includes children's musician Chris McKhool, Kingston Irish Folk Club, Rob Driscoll's Wild and Wacky Magic Show, The Gertrudes, Sunshine Soul, Like a Lion (formerly Fault Line Drive), Wascal Bratts and Dr. Kaboom's Fire Show. Enjoy the Canada Day ceremony at 6 p.m. topped by the cutting of the six-foot birthday cake.

Entertainment also runs on the lower (small stage) entertainment with a Marionette show from 3:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. and the Barefoot Players from 4:05 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. There are also free events all day at the MacLachlan Woodworking Museum, see www.cityofkingston.ca/museums.

The Grass Creek Park fireworks start at 10 p.m. sharp. Bring your own flashlight to help navigate through the park after dark. The beach will close to prepare for the evening's fireworks.
