(b) Moved by Councillor Foster
Seconded by Councillor K. George

THAT Council approve that the purpose for undertaking a Review of Services is to find long-term, sustainable solutions to on-going budget challenges and to ensure municipal services and programs are provided in the most efficient, effective manner to best meet the needs of the community;

–and further–

THAT the Review of Services will be conducted by using a two-phased approach:

• Phase 1 will identify if there are any services that are non-essential and can be discontinued to allow tax dollars to be directed to those services that are deemed appropriate; it being understood that Phase 1 will not necessarily result in fewer services.

• Phase 2 (which will be developed for 2005) will be to ensure that the most appropriate management and service delivery models are being used.

–and further–

THAT Council approve the Phase 1 objectives, as outlined in the body of Report No. 04-122;

–and further–

THAT Council direct the Executive Management Team to develop criteria and bring forth a recommendation to Council that identifies a limited number of services that will be reviewed in 2004;

–and further–

THAT Council approve the proposed structure for this project and the roles and responsibilities as defined in the body of Report No. 04-122;

–and further–

THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

THAT the Task Force be comprised of Members of Council and that staff and the public be allowed access to the Committee similar to that of the Solid Waste Task Force;

–and further–

THAT Council approve a reporting schedule based on milestones throughout the Review and the timelines as identified in the Work Breakdown (Appendix B) of Report No. 04-122;

–and further–

THAT Council approve the notion of developing a Consultation & Communication Plan by working with the champions for the FOCUS Kingston “Getting Our House In Order” priority area; it being understood that this Plan will be brought back for Council approval prior to gathering the service data;
THAT Council approve, in principle, a step process as described in the body of Report No. 04-122 for dealing with displaced staff and instruct the Director of Human Resources to prepare a report that addresses considerations and identifies options for the areas under review;

THAT Council approve the required funding in the amount of $200,000.00 to be funded from the Working Reserve Fund.

CARRIED AS AMENDED (11:2)
(See Motion to AMEND Which Was CARRIED)
