

Kingston's Brownfields: Past, Present, and Future

Come and join in a public forum to explore the past, present and future of Kingston's brownfields from a variety of perspectives: historical, environmental, economic and political. The Kingston Environmental Advisory Forum (KEAF) is interested in hearing your opinions and your ideas about brownfield redevelopment in our community. The two hour forum will include brief presentations by a panel of knowledgeable representatives from the City of Kingston, the provincial government, private industry and academia and an open discussion with members of the public.

What: Public meeting on Kingston's Brownfields: Past, Present, and Future

Where: The Wilson Room, Kingston Public Library

When: 10 a.m. to 12 a.m. Saturday, April 21, 2012

Refreshments will be available from 9:30 a.m.

For details, consult the KEAF webpage: www.cityofkingston.ca/keaf
