The City of Kingston does not currently have a maximum household asset limit
O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (1).

Regardless of this local Directive, the asset eligibility rule must exclude the following from the value of the assets of the household:
O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (5).

1. The value of the interest of a member of the household in a motor vehicle that is not used primarily for the operation of a business by a member of the household, subject to subsection (6).

2. The value of tools of a trade that are essential to the work of a member of the household as an employee.

3. The value of assets of a member of the household that are necessary to the operation of a business that the member operates or has an interest in, subject to subsection (7).

4. The value of a prepaid funeral.

5. The cash surrender value of a life insurance policy, subject to subsection (8).

6. The proceeds of a loan taken against a life insurance policy that will be used for disability-related items or services.

7. If a member of the household has received a payment under the Ministry of Community and Social Services Act for the successful participation in a program of activities described in paragraph 9 of section 26 of Ontario Regulation 134/98 (General) made under the Ontario Works Act, 1997, the value of any portion of that payment that, within a time that is reasonable in the opinion of the service manager, will be used for the member's post-secondary education.

8. The value of funds held in a Registered Education Savings Plan, as defined in section 146.1 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), for a child of a member of the household.

9. The value of the clothing, jewelry and other personal effects of a member of the household.

10. The value of the furnishings in the accommodation used by the household, including decorative or artistic items, but not including anything used primarily for the operation of a business.
11. The value of the beneficial interest in a trust of a member of the household who has a disability if the capital of the trust was derived from an inheritance or from the proceeds of a life insurance policy, subject to subsection (9).

12. The value of funds held in a Registered Disability Savings Plan, as defined in section 146.4 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), if the beneficiary of the plan is a member of the household.

13. The value of funds held in an account of a member of the household in conjunction with an initiative under which the service manager or an entity approved by the service manager commits to contribute funds towards the member’s savings goals. O. Reg.
367/11, s. 35 (5).

1. (6) Under paragraph 1 of subsection (5), the local eligibility rule is only required to exclude an interest of a member in a single vehicle, not in any other vehicle that member has an interest in. O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (6).

2. (7) Under paragraph 3 of subsection (5), the local eligibility rule is only required to exclude,
(a) the value of assets of a member of the household, up to a maximum of $20,000 for that member; and
(b) the value of assets necessary to the operation of a business, up to a maximum of $20,000 for that business. O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (7).

3. (8) Under paragraph 5 of subsection (5), the local eligibility rule is only required to exclude the cash surrender value of life insurance policies up to a maximum value of $100,000 for the household. O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (8).

4. (9) Under paragraph 11 of subsection (5), the local eligibility rule is only required to exclude the value of beneficial interests of a member of the household up to a maximum value of $100,000 for that member. O. Reg. 367/11, s. 35 (9).
