

PROCLAMATION

Science Rendezvous Kingston Day May 9, 2020

Whereas SCIENCE RENDEZVOUS is where people and science, technology, engineering, the arts and mathematics meet as a special part of Science Odyssey (May 2 – 17, 2020); and

Whereas Science Rendezvous Kingston is where people of all ages can meet to learn from and celebrate the local scientists from Queen's University, the Royal Military College of Canada, museums and community organizations; and

Whereas Science Rendezvous Kingston engages and inspires young Kingstonians and the citizens of this city to participate in discovery, experimentation, and exploration in STEAM; and

Whereas Science Rendezvous Kingston, Canada's largest pop-up Science Discovery Centre in Canada is proud to celebrate its 10th anniversary; and

Whereas Science Rendezvous Kingston is celebrating green: scientists and members of the public working towards environmental conservation and improved health of the planet;

Therefore, I, Mayor Bryan Paterson, hereby proclaim May 9, 2019 as "Science Rendezvous Kingston Day" in the City of Kingston as Science Rendezvous Kingston Day in appreciation of the individuals in our community who are working so diligently, in formal laboratories or back gardens, as mentors and stewards.

Dated at Kingston this 19th day of February, 2020

Bryan Paterson
Mayor
