Whereas the aggression carried out with assault weapons or handguns in the committing of crimes and massacres across Canada would have been much diminished and lives saved had such guns not been available to the perpetrator; and

Whereas in 2018 the Toronto and Montreal City councils passed resolutions requesting the federal government to prohibit the availability, sale, private possession of handguns, assault rifles and semiautomatic guns in Canada, with the exception of police services or other law enforcement entities; and

Whereas Canada has been victimized by instances of mass murder where the perpetrator had use of assault weapons; and

Whereas Bill C-71, currently does not prohibit private possession of assault weapons or handguns; and

Whereas according to Statistics Canada, violent crimes involving weapons increased by 33% between 2013 and 2016, and that 60% of these crimes involve handguns; and

Whereas, according to police and provincial authorities across the country, legally purchased firearms are now the source of the majority of weapons seized in the context of criminal activities, having been stolen from legal owners or illegally sold; and

Whereas the report published by Statistics Canada on November 22, 2017 specifies that the number and rate of homicides committed with guns has increased for a third consecutive year in Canada; and

Whereas according to the Canadian Woman's Foundation, in Canadian households the presence of firearms in the home is the single greatest risk factor for lethality of domestic violence; and

Whereas the Association of Canadian Police Chiefs have historically taken positions for better gun control in Canada;

Therefore Be It Resolved That the City Council of Kingston ask the federal government to strengthen Bill C-71, including the prohibition of the private possession of assault weapons, semi-automatic weapons, and handguns, with the exception of police services or other law enforcement entities; and

That this motion be shared with the Right Honorable Justin Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada, the opposition party leaders, the minister and critics of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness; and
