Neighbourhood Profiles - 2011 Census

32 – Kingston Penitentiary

The Kingston Penitentiary is located in Kingston Central and is generally bounded by Union Street to the north, Sir John A. Macdonald Boulevard to the east, Gardiner Street to the west and Lake Ontario to the south. The Kingston Penitentiary officially ceased functioning as a maximum security federal correctional facility on September 30, 2013. In 2011, the population for the Kingston Penitentiary was 543. With the exception of population, there is no additional 2011 Census or National Household Survey information available for this area.

Source: Statistics Canada, 2011 Census of Population
Prepared by: The City of Kingston Planning Division