THAT Kingston City Council extends its sincere condolences to the family and friends of Roy Phillips who passed away on January 5, 2012. Mr. Phillips lead a long and memorable life with many accomplishments, both personally and professionally. His distinguished career in engineering began at General Electric in Peterborough Ontario where he dedicated 25 years, after which he became president of the Canadian Manufacturers Association. During this time he served as the Chair of the Advisory Committee on Inmate Employment for Correctional Services of Canada. Ten years later he was elected president of the Geneva-based International Organization for Standardization, which allowed him to travel the world to discuss international trade and policy. For his accomplishments as ISO president, he received the Order of Canada in 1986. In 1997, Roy moved to Kingston where he continued to contribute his services as an active member at Chalmers United Church, and finished his accomplished life as a husband, father, and a friend. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.
