A discussion on the “Advisory Deliverable: Report Card”, will be lead by Ms. Jocelyn Purdie, Chair, and Mr. Colin Wiginton, Manager, Cultural Services.

Please review the attached document (The Arts Advisory Committee – Facilitation Outcome report by Rob Wood, 8020 Info Inc.) which summarizes the priorities set by the Arts Advisory Committee at the March 2012 meeting as well as the minutes from the April 12 meeting of the Arts Advisory Committee. Please consider the following:

- Ø What is needed/required to create an inclusive arts scene in the City of Kingston?
- Ø How have things changed since the introduction of the City of Kingston Arts Fund in 2007 and the approval of the Kingston Culture Plan in 2010?
- Ø What do artists need to prosper in Kingston?
- Ø What would be needed to engage the wider community more in the arts scene?
- Ø Where are the areas of need?
- Ø What would be your short-term ambition for the arts scene in Kingston (2 years)?
- Ø What would be your longer term ambition for the arts scene in Kingston (5-10 years)?
- Ø What role can/should the City play moving forward?

MANDATE/TERMS OF REFERENCE

The Arts Advisory Committee will serve as an avenue of communication and consultation between the arts community and the municipal government, it being understood that the arts include creative expression in all media including visual and media arts, performing arts such as theatre, music and dance, literature, film and craft. Its aim is to ensure that Kingston arts programs serve the needs and priorities of artists and arts organizations and are in step with those of peer municipalities, and broader, established norms in the field. Through regular communication with City of Kingston staff and City of Kingston Council, the Arts Advisory Committee will foster awareness of City of Kingston goals and methods within the arts community. Its mandate includes reporting on the following to the Arts, Recreation and Community Policies Committee:

1. Monitoring the impact and effectiveness of the City of Kingston arts programs;
2. Making recommendations regarding existing programs and new initiatives;
3. Making staff and Council, through the Arts, Recreation and Community Policies Committee, aware of changing conditions and opportunities in the arts;
4. Advising Council and staff, through the Arts, Recreation and Community Policies Committee, of the present and potential impact of non-art programs and policies on the arts sector.
